

TALK - Gtfu

tom: Gbm [Intro] Gbm Db7 E B

[Primeira Parte]

Young man
Will you ever act your age?
Will you ever turn the page?
Was the odyssey all you wanted?
Do you still have any friends?
Do you know where love begins?
Is the fantasy still worth somethin'?

[Refrão]

Maybe the brick was never yellow
And the road was never fun
Maybe it's time to feel a little
Enough with all the drugs
Maybe it's time that you let go
Of what you're dreamin' of
Maybe I'm just too sentimental
To grow the fuck up
To grow the fuck up

[Segunda Parte]

Young man
The drink is gonna take its toll
The fame is gonna stain your soul
If you win it all, it all will kill you
I'm getting high and punching walls
I'm throwing up in bathroom stalls
Is it over yet? 'Cause I regret this

[Refrão]

Maybe the brick was never yellow
And the road was never fun
Maybe it's time to feel a little
Enough with all the drugs
Maybe it's time that you let go
Of what you're dreamin' of
Maybe I'm just too sentimental
To grow the fuck up
To grow the fuck up
To grow the fuck up

Maybe the brick was never yellow
And the road was never fun
Maybe it's time to feel a little
Enough with all the drugs
Maybe it's time that you let go
Of what you're dreamin' of
Maybe I'm just too sentimental
To grow the fuck up

[Solo] Gbm Db7 E B

[Ponte]

Young man, young man
Grow the fuck up
Young man, young man
Grow the fuck up
Young man, young man
Grow the fuck up
Young man, young man
Grow the fuck up

[Refrão]

Maybe the brick was never yellow
And the road was never fun
Maybe it's time to feel a little
Enough with all the drugs
Maybe it's time that you let go
Of what you're dreamin' of
Maybe I'm just too sentimental
To grow the fuck up
To grow the fuck up
To grow the fuck up
To grow the fuck up
