

Tame Impala - Sun's Coming Up

Tom: Bb

G Gbm F Gbm
All those things I ever thought would never end,
C Am
To think they now are memories
C D
Since we're in the band
G Gbm F Gbm
Watch the airplanes swaying, coming in to land
C Am C D
Then my world is hanging in someone else's hands
G Gbm F Gbm
And if I have done something, you have to let me go
C Am C D
Think of me as someone, someone that you know
G Gbm F Gbm
But if I don't hear something, pretty soon from now, ill
C Am C C7
disconnect completely, see how that works out

(C Am)
(C C7)

Gm Gm Gm F Gm

I wasn't daring, not much a chancer
Gm Gm Cm F Gm
Oh my darling, why won't you answer?
Gm Gm Gm F Gm
Se-ven AM, midnight in Dover
Gm Gm Cm F Gm
Sun's comin up now, I guess it's over.
Gm Gm Gm F
Gm
Playing his guitar while he's dying of cancer
Gm Gm Cm F Gm
Oh my father, why won't you answer?
Gm Gm Gm F Gm
Se-ven AM, midnight in Dover
Gm Gm Cm F Gm
Sun's comin up now, I guess it's over.

The guitar noise that follows, uses mainly these chords:

B Gbm
And
Cm Bbm G

Since the piano part is played in 3/4 tempo, the bottom note of the chord is often played as the bass.
Look at the intro part - and listen to the song - to get the rhythm right.
