

Taproot - Run To

tom:

G

Em

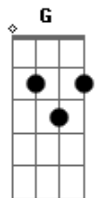

I don't want a hall of fame
I just want you to know my name
I can't see just where you are
But it's alright

Somewhere out there in the night
Someone's feeling out of sight
I can't see just where you are
But it's alright

I can be the one you run to tragedy
I can be the one to show you destiny
I can be the rock you're needing
I can be the crutch to help you be
Who you want to be

I can fix a broken frame
But I can't help you all the same
I can't see just where you are
But it's alright
