

tate mcrae - Dear Person Who Doesn't Understand Me

tom:

[Primeira Parte]

Staring at the walls again
I don't even think that you have ever seen me
Know that you try to pretend
Think you know my head
Why can't you just believe me

[Pré-Refrão]

Now, I'm stuck here for the second time
They all assume but don't even try
And now I'm the bad guy
Make mistakes sometimes
Sorry you don't understand

[Refrão]

Sometimes don't feel cause I don't like emotions
So confusing usually don't know where my mind's tryna go
And I like nights cause I hate when it's bright out
Yeah, laugh a lot but my brain's really psyched out
Don't fall fast but when I do, I hang on a little too long
And I get distant when I'm mad at myself
Push too hard then my soul's left a burnout

I say sorry a lot, don't know why but I'm sorry, I guess
[Segunda Parte]

Barely even said a word
You already got a story that you'll twist up
If I speak I'll make it worse
Contemplating how it always gets so messed up

[Pré-Refrão]

Now, I'm stuck here for the second time
They all assume but don't even try
And now I'm the bad guy
Make mistakes sometimes
