

Taylor Swift - Anti-Hero

I wake up screaming from dreaming
                          tom:
                                                                     Dbm
                                                            One day I?ll watch as you?re leaving
                                                            And life lose all of its meaning
                                                     Dbm
I have this thing where I get older but just never wiser
                                                            (For the last time)
Midnights become my afternoons
When my depression works the graveyard shift
                                                            It?s me, hi
 Dbm A E
All of the people I?ve ghosted stand there in the room
                                                            I?m the problem, it?s me
                                                             A E B Dbm
                                                            At tea time, everybody agrees
A E
I should not be left to my own devices
                                                            I?ll stare directly at the sun
They come with prices and vices
                                                             Dbm
                                                            But never in the mirror
I end up in crisis (I?ve realized all this time)

                                                            It must be exhausting
I wake up screaming from dreaming
                                                             B Dbm
                                                            Always rooting for the anti-hero
         Dbm
One day I?ll watch as you?re leaving A E B
Cause you got tired of my scheming
                                                            I have this dream my daughter-in-law kills me for the money
                                                            She thinks I left them in the will
(For the last time)
                                                            The family gathers around and reads it and someone screams out
It?s me, hi
                                                            ?She?s laughing up at us from hell!?
I?m the problem, it?s me

Always rooting for the anti-hero
                                                            Everybody agrees
Sometimes I feel like everybody is a sexy baby

                                                            It?s me, hi
And I?m a monster on the hill
                                                                         Dbm
                                                            I?m the problem, it?s me
Too big to hang out, slowly lurching towards your favorite
                                                            At tea time, everybody agrees

Pierced through the heart, but never killed
                                                            I?ll stare directly at the sun

                                                            But never in the mirror
Did you hear my covert narcissism lightly disguised as
                                                            It must be exhausting

Like some kind of congressman (I?ve realized all this time)
                                                            Always rooting for the anti-hero
