                                                                 Only bought this dress so you could take it off, take it off
                                                                (ha, ha, ha-ah)
  Our secret moments in a crowded room
                                                                 Carve your name into my bedpost
  They got no idea about me and you
                                                                  'Cause I don't want you like a best friend
 There is an indentation in the shape of you
                                                                 Only bought this dress so you could take it off
 Made your mark on me, a golden tattoo
                                                                Take it off (ha, ha)
All of this silence and patience, pining and anticipation
                                                               Ha-ah, ha-ah, ha-ah-ha-ah
My hands are shaking from holding back from you (ha, ah, ah)
                                                                 Only bought this dress so you could take it off, take it off
All of this silence and patience, pining and desperately
                                                               Ha-ah, ha-ah, ha-ah-ha-ah
My hands are shaking from all this, ah, ha, ha, ha-ah
                                                                 Only bought this dress so you could take it off, take it off
                                                                Flashback when you met me, your buzzcut and my hair bleached
  Say my name and everything just stops
I don?t want you like a best friend
                                                                Even in my worst times, you could see the best of me
  Only bought this dress so you could take it off, take it off Flashback to my mistakes, my rebounds, my earthquakes
(ha, ha, ha-ah)
                                                                Even in my worst light, you saw the truth in me
  Carve your name into my bedpost
  'Cause I don't want you like a best friend
                                                                And I woke up just in time, now I wake up by your side
  Only bought this dress so you could take it off
                                                                  My one and only, my lifeline
Take it off (ha, ha, ha-ah)
                                                                I woke up just in time, now I wake up by your side
                                                               My hands are shaking, can't explain this, ha, ha, ha
  Inescapable, I?m not even going to try
  And if I get burned, at least we were electrified
                                                                 Say my name and everything just stops
  I'm spilling wine in the bathtub, you kiss my face and we're I don?t want you like a best friend
                                                                 Only bought this dress so you could take it off, take it off
  Everyone thinks that they know us, but they know nothing
                                                                (ha, ha, ha)
                                                                 Carve your name into my bedpost
All of this silence and patience, pining and anticipation
                                                                  'Cause I don't want you like a best friend
                                                                 Only bought this dress so you could take it off
My hands are shaking from holding back from you (ha, ah, ah)
All of this silence and patience, pining and desperately
                                                                Take it off (ha, ha, ha, ha)
                                                                  There is an indentation in the shape of you
My hands are shaking from all this, ah, ha, ha, ha-ah
                                                                  Only bought this dress so you could take it off
  Say my name and everything just stops
                                                                 You made your mark on me, golden tattoo
I don?t want you like a best friend
                                                                 Only bought this dress so you could take it off
