Forgive me, Peter

My lost fearless leader

In closets like cedar

Preserved from when we were just kids

Is it something I did?

The goddess of timing

Em
Once found us beguiling

Am
She said she was trying

G
Peter, was she lying?

My ribs get the feeling she did

Am G F
And I didn't wanna come down

Am G F
I thought it was just goodbye for now

Dm
You said you were gonna grow up

F
Then you were gonna come find me

Am
Said you were gonna grow up

G
Th?n you were gonna come find m?

Words from the mouths of babes

Promises oceans deep

But never to keep

F G
Oh, never to keep

C
Are you still a mind reader?

A natural scene stealer?

Am
I've heard great things, Peter

G F
But life was always easier on you

G
Than it was on me

C
And sometimes it gets me

Em
When crossing your jet stream

Am G
We both did the best we could do

F
Underneath the same moon

G
In different galaxies

And I didn't wanna hang around

We said it was just goodbye for now

C Am
And I won't confess that I waited, but I let the lamp burn

F G
As the men masqueraded, I hoped you'd return

C Am
With your feet on the ground, tell me all that you'd learned

F G
'Cause love's never lost when perspective is earned

And you said you'd come and get me, but you were twenty-five

F G
And the shelf life of those fantasies has expired

C Am
Lost to the "Lost Boys" chapter of your life

F G
Forgive me, Peter, please know that I tried

To hold on (Hold on) to the days (To the days)

When you were mine
