But never to keep
F F G Am
Oh, never to keep

C Am
And I won't confess that I waited, but I let the Lamp burn
F G
As the men masqueraded, I hoped you'd return
C Am
With your feet on the ground, tell me all that You'd learned
F G
'Cause love's never lost when perspective is earned
C
And you said you'd come and get me
Am
But you were twenty-five
F G
And the shelf life of those fantasies
Has expired
C Am
Lost to the "Lost Boys" chapter of your life
F G
Forgive me, Peter, please know that I tried
Am G
To hold on to the days
F
When you were mine
Am G
But the woman who sits by the window
F Dm
Has turned out the light
