

Taylor Swift - The Fate of Ophelia

(All that time) I sat alone in my tower
                tom:
Intro: Gm Dm F C
                                                                You were just honing your powers
                                                                Now I can see it all (see it all)
I heard you calling on the megaphone
                                                                (Late one night) You dug me out of my grave and
You wanna see me all alone
                                                                Saved my heart from the fate of Ophelia (Ophelia)
As legend has it, you are quite the pyro
                                                                Keep it one hundred on the land (land), the sea (sea), the sky
You light the match to watch it blow
                                                                Pledge allegiance to your hands, your team, your vibes
And if you'd never come for me
                                                                Don't care where the hell you been
I might've drowned in the melancholy
                                                                (Been) 'Cause now (now) you're mine
I swore my loyalty to me (me), myself (myself) and i (I)
                                                                It's 'bout to be sleepless night you've been dreaming of Right before you lit my sky up
                                                                The fate of Ophelia
(All that time) I sat alone in my tower
                                                                'Tis locked inside my memory and only you possess the key
You were just honing your powers
                                                               No longer drowning and deceived
Now I can see it all (see it all)
                                                                All because you came for me
(Late one night) You dug me out of my grave and Locked inside my memory and only you possess the key
Saved my heart from the fate of Ophelia (Ophelia)
                                                                No longer drowning and deceived
Keep it one hundred on the land (land), the sea (sea), the sky All because you came for me
Pledge allegiance to your hands, your team, your vibes
                                                                (All that time) I sat alone in my tower
Don't care where the hell you been
                                                                You were just honing your powers
(Been) 'Cause now (now) you're mine
                                                                Now I can see it all (see it all)
It's 'bout to be sleepless night you've been dreaming of (Late one night) You dug me out of my grave and
The fate of Ophelia
                                                                Saved my heart from the fate of Ophelia (Ophelia)
The eldest daughter of a nobleman
                                                               Keep it one hundred on the land (land)
Ophelia lived in fantasy
                                                               The sea (sea) (the sea), the sky
But love was a cold bed full of scorpions
                                                               Pledge allegiance to your hands
The venom stole her sanity (yeah)
                                                                (Your hands), your team, your vibes
And if you'd never come for me (come for me)
                                                               Don't care where the hell you been (been) (you've
I might've lingered in purgatory
                                                                Been) 'cause now (now) ('cause now) you're mine
You wrap around me like a chain
                                                                It's 'bout to be sleepless night you've been dreaming of
                                                                The fate of Ophelia
(Chain), a crown (crown), a vine (vine)
Pulling me into the fire
                                                               You saved my heart from the fate of Ophelia
