

Taylor Swift - The Fate of Ophelia

(All that time) I sat alone in my tower
                tom:
                                                                You were just honing your powers
 I heard you calling on the megaphone
                                                                Now I can see it all (I can see it all)
You wanna see me all alone
                                                                (Late one night) You dug me out of my grave and
 As legend has it, you are quite the pyro
                                                                Saved my heart from the fate of Ophelia (Ophelia)
You light the match to watch it blow
                                                                Keep it one hundred on the land (land), the sea (sea), the sky
And if you'd never come for me
                                                                Pledge allegiance to your hands, your team, your vibes
 I might've drowned in the melancholy
                                                                Don't care where the hell you been
I swore my loyalty to me (me), myself (myself) and i (I)
                                                                (Been) 'Cause now (now) you're mine
Right before you lit my sky up
                                                                It's 'bout to be the sleepless night you've been dreaming of

(All that time) I sat alone in my tower
                                                                The fate of Ophelia
You were just honing your powers
                                                                'Tis locked inside my memory and only you possess the key
Now I can see it all (I can see it all)
                                                                No longer drowning and deceived
          Bb
(Late one night) You dug me out of my grave and
                                                                All because you came for me
Saved my heart from the fate of Ophelia (Ophelia)
                                                                Locked inside my memory and only you possess the key
Keep it one hundred on the land (land), the sea (sea), the sky
                                                               No longer drowning and deceived
Pledge allegiance to your hands, your team, your vibes
                                                                All because you came for me
Don't care where the hell you been
                                                                (All that time) I sat alone in my tower
(Been) 'Cause now (now) you're mine
                                                                You were just honing your powers
It's 'bout to be the sleepless night you've been dreaming of
                                                                Now I can see it all (I can see it all)
The fate of Ophelia
                                                                (Late one night) You dug me out of my grave and
 The eldest daughter of a nobleman
                                                                Saved my heart from the fate of Ophelia (Ophelia)
Ophelia lived in fantasy
                                                                Keep it one hundred on the land (land), the sea (sea), the sky
But love was a cold bed full of scorpions
                                                               Pledge allegiance to your hands, your team, your vibes
 The venom stole her sanity (yeah)
                                                                Don't care where the hell you been
And if you'd never come for me (come for me)
                                                                (Been) 'Cause now (now) you're mine
I might've lingered in purgatory
                                                                It's 'bout to be the sleepless night you've been dreaming of
You wrap around me like a chain
                                                                The fate of Ophelia
(Chain), a crown (crown), a vine (vine)
                                                                 You saved my heart from the fate of Ophelia
Pulling me into the fire
