

Taylor Swift - You're Not Sorry / What Goes Around... Comes Around

```
Intro: 2x: Em C G D
                                                              I'm just so sick about it
                                                              I can't believe it's ending this way
All this time I was wasting hoping you would come around
                                                              Just so confused about it
I've been giving out chances every time and all you do is let Feeling the blues about it
                                                              Could you tell me is this fair?
And it's taking me this long baby but I figured you out
And you think it will be fine again but not this time around
                                                              Is this the way it's really going down?
                                                              Is this how we say goodbye?
You don't have to call anymore
                                                              Should've known better when you came around
I won't pick up the phone \ensuremath{\text{I}}
                                                              That you were gonna make me cry
            Em C
This is the last straw
                                                              It's breaking my heart to watch you run around
Don't want to hurt anymore
                                                              Cause I know that you're living a lie
        Fm
And you can tell me that you're sorry
                                                              But that's ok, baby, cause in time you will find
But I don't believe you baby like I did before
Em C G D
                                                              What goes around, goes around, goes around,
You're not sorry no, no, no, no
(Em C G D)
                                                              Comes all the way back around
                                                                     Am
                                                              What goes around, goes around, goes around,
Lookin' so innocent
                                                              Comes all the way back around
I might believe you if I didn't know
                                                              What goes around, goes around, goes around,
Could I loved you all my life
                                                              Comes all the way back around
If you hadn't left me waiting in the cold
                                                              What goes around, goes around, goes around,
And you got your share of secrets
                                                              Comes all the way back around
And I'm tired of being last to know
                                                              Yeah
And now you're asking me to listen
          C G D
Cause' it's worked each time before
                                                              So you don't have to call anymore
                                                              I won't pick up the phone
But you don't have to call anymore
                                                                          Em
                                                              This is the last straw
I won't pick up the phone
                                                              There's nothing left to beg for
          Em
This is the last straw
                                                              And you can tell me that you're sorry
Don't want to hurt anymore
                                                              But I won't believe you baby like I did before
           Fm
And you can tell me that you're sorry
                                                                        Em C
                                                              You're not sorry no, no, no
But I don't believe you baby like I did before
                                                                         Em C
                                                              You're not sorry no, no, no
         Em C G D
You're not sorry no, no, no
           Em
                                                              No, no, no, no, no
You're not sorry no, no, no
                                                               Em C G D
                                                              No, no, no, no
(Em C G D)
                                                              (Em C G D)
You had me calling for you honey
                                                              You spend your nights alone
And it never would've gone away, no
                                                              And she never comes home
You use to shine so bright
                                                              And every time you call her, all you get is a busy tone
But I watched all of it fade
                                                              What she's doing to you
Don't wanna think about it
                                                             What you did to me
Don't wanna talk about it
                                                              Ain't that the way it goes
