  Advice for the young at heart
                                                                Love is promise Love is a souvenir
                                                                          F7M
Soon we will be older
                                                                Once given Never forgotten,
When we gonna make it work
                                                                never let it disappear
                                                               This could be our last chance
Too many people living in a secret world
                                                               When we gonna make it work
               F7M
While they play mothers and fathers
                                                                               Gm7 Bb Bb
                                                               Working hour is over
                       Em7
We play little boys and girls
                     C7M
 When we gonna make it work
                                                               And how it makes me weep
                                                                   Bb
                                                                Cos someone sent my soul to sleep
I Could be happy
                                                               And when I think of you
I could be quite naïve
                                                                            Bb
                                                                and all the love that's due

It's only me and my shadows
                                                                           Bb
                                                                                               C Am7 C
                                                                I'll make a promise, I'll make a stand
Happy in our make believe...Soon
                                                                            Bb
                                                                Cos to these big brown eyes,

                                                                             Bb
  And with the hounds at bay this comes as no surprise
                                                                             Bb
I'll call your bluff, he,he,he
