                                                                                                                                                                                                           Mm, I'm gonna try with a little help from my friends
WITH A LITTLE HELP FROM MY FRIENDS- The Beatles
                                                                                                                                                                                                           Oh I get high with a little help from my friends
                                                                                                                                                                                                           Yes, I get by with a little help from my friends
What would you do if I sang out of tune
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        C Am E
                                                                                                                                                                                                           With a little help from my friends
                                                                            B7
Would you stand up and walk out on me?
                                                                                                                                                                                                           (from Sgt. Pepper's, 1967)
Lend me your ears and I'll sing you a song
