You've disobeyed my orders, son,

Why Were You Ever Born?

Your brother's ten times better than you,

Jesus loves him more.

This music that you play for us comes from the depths of hell.

Rock and roll's The Devil's work, he wants you to rebel.

You'll become a mindless puppet;
Beelzebub will pull the strings!

Your heart will lose direction,

And chaos it will bring.

You'd better shut your mouth,

Better watch your tone!

You're GROUNDED for a week with no telephone!

Don't let me here you cry,

Don't let me hear you moan!

You gotta praise The Lord when you're in my home!

(Nota: Apartir daqui tocar acordes normais)

G
Dio can you hear me?

I am lost and so alone.

I'm askin' for your guidance.

Won't you come down from your throne?

I need a tight compadre who will teach me how to rock.

My father thinks you're evil,

But man, he can suck a cock.

Rock is not The Devil's work,

It's magical and rad.

I'll never rock as long as I am stuck here with my dad.

(Nota: Apartir daqui tocar as acordes em powerchord)

I hear you brave young Jaybles,

You are hungry for the rock.

But to learn the ancient method,

Sacred doors you must unlock.

Escape your father's clutches,

And this oppressive neighborhood.

On a journey you must go,

To find the land of Hollywood!

In The City of Fallen Angels,

Where the ocean meets the sand,

You will form a strong alliance,

And the world's most awesome band.

To find your fame and fortune,

Through the valley you must walk.

You will face your inner demons.

Now go my son and rock!
