

Thai - open (love) letter

tom:

'Cause I feel you more here than myself sometimes
 And when I look in your eyes I feel safe inside
 Do you know that I can't breath every time you kiss me?
 And that I'm not letting you go even if you ask me?
 'Cause baby this is hard to find It's what keeps us alive

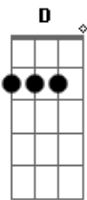

(D E A D)
 Hmm hmmm 4x

So come and hold me tonight, say that cheesy line I like to hear

Drive us away from here and feel the breeze in our arms
 But please don't, don't disappear, I want you here by my side

'Cause I feel you more here than myself sometimes
 And when I look in your eyes I feel safe inside
 Do you know that I can't breath every time you kiss me?
 And that I'm not letting you go even if you ask me?
 'Cause baby this is hard to find It's what keeps us alive
