A grown up man dressed in white

                                                      Made in my room, this simple tune

                               Dbm7 B
                                                      The crowds will sing their voices ring it's not the same when i scratch my own head

i haven't got the nails for it And it's like you never left

 A2 E B Dbm7 B
                                                      But i'm bereft you see
And all of the palaver surrounding it
                                                      A2 E Dbm7 B
I think you can tell

                                                                         E Dbm7 B E
   A2 B E B Dbm7 B A2 B E
But i like to think you hear me sometimes i haven't been doing too well
