

The Amplifetes - Blinded By The Moonlight

Tom: G

Well it's just me and you
Well on those things we do
Under the stolet sky
We trust 'em to the night
Make on the traffic lights
Watching the cars go by
They're waiting for the meaning
Staring at the ceiling
And waiting for the moonlight
To come around
My heart is beatin'
Beating for that special feeling
I'm waiting for the moonlight
To come around
And we're blinded by the moonlight, moonlight, moonlight

Does in it the deadline
Was upon the lifetime, lifetime, lifetime
Baby let's just get it right
We're floating on a cloud
Above the sleeping crowd
Upon the moving sway
Shooting stars pull our strings
To never steal and sings
To chase the ghosts away
We're on an all time high now
Feel so happy I could cry now
The flicker of an eyebrow
Says here we go again
And we're blinded by the moonlight, moonlight, moonlight
Does in it the deadline
Was upon the lifetime, lifetime, lifetime
Baby let's just get it right
