War is over now

I feel my mind returning

Carried on a cloud

Every nerve was burning over you

I never had a need at all for anyone
Anyone other than you

But now that's through
So through

We're prayin' to get it fast

And we pray it's in the past

Is anything we do, ever gonna last?

Couldn't I have a clue?

Searchin' the blue

Couldn't I have a clue?

Searchin' the blue

I'm searching the blu__e

The lay of land disease

Rocky and uneven
The light that we receive
Clouded beyond reason

Still we breathe

A human knows its self throughout without a doubt

For better, for worse we will remain

The same

We're prayin' to get it fast

And we pray it's in the past

Is anything we do, ever gonna last?

Couldn't I have a clue?

Searchin' the blue

Couldn't I have a clue?

Searchin' the blue
I'm searching the blu__e
