

The Bakers - Hotel

tom:

B

Today the hours pass slowly while

Begin to suffer suddenly

I, wish I could blow my own mind

Now the dog it's beggin for me

He wants to play, I wanna sleep now

Next to you in a hotel room

And I been waiting for you to tell

That "I love you" in this hotel

I was searching into yourself

While you where looking to someone else

...Eyes

I will declare a tie (tie, tie)

I rather not to die (die, die)

The only thing we have is time

Now, I will get that, now

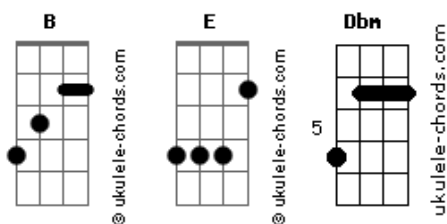

Look into your eyes, and I can't

Believe that this is truth and I

Can't understand yourself

I'm going to search for someone else

Acordes

Thats all I can and I believe
That I will lost myself because I dont wanna sleep with another girl

...Eyes
I will declare a tie (tie, tie)
I rather not to die (die, die)
The only thing we have is time

Oooh, ooh
My parachute is useless
If I'm just gonna walk
I make things just waiting
For others to happen
And everything goes wrong
And everything goes wrong

I'm right here waiting for your eyes in this hotel
I'm right here waiting for your eyes in this hotel
I'm right here waiting for your eyes in this hotel
I'm right here waiting for your eyes in this hotel
