

The Ballad Of Buster Scruggs - When A Cowboy Trades His Spurs For Wings

Tom: C
Intro: C F

[Verso 1]

Let me tell you buddy, there's a faster gun
Coming over yonder when tomorrow comes
Let me tell you buddy, and it won't be long
Till you find yourself singing your last cowboy song

[Refrão]

Yippie-ki-yi-aye, when the round up ends
Yippie-ki-yi-aye, and the camp fire sims
Yippie-ki-yi-aye, he shouts when he sings
When a cowboy trades his spurs for wings

[Verso 2]

(F)

When they wrap my body in the thin thin sheet
And they take my six irons, pull the boots from my feet

Unsaddle my pony, she'll be itching to roam
I'll be half way to heaven under horse powered my own

[Refrão]

Yippie-ki-yi-aye, when the round up ends
Yippie-ki-yi-aye, and the camp fire sims
Yippie-ki-yi-aye, he shouts when he sings
When a cowboy trades his spurs for wings

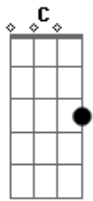

[Ponte]

Yippie-ki-yi-aye, and glory bound
No more jingle jangle, I lay my guns down

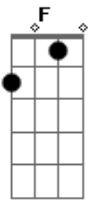

[Refrão]

Yippie-ki-yi-aye, He shouts and he sings
When a cowboy trades his spurs for wings
(F C F)
When a cowboy trades his spurs for wings
