

The Bangles - Hero Takes a Fall

Tom: C

D
The hero was exposed when
D
His crimes were brought to the light of day
D
Won't be feelin sorry, sorry, sorry on the judgement day

G F
Wasn't it me who said
G F
There'll be a price to pay

C
And I won't feel bad at all
C
When the hero takes a fall
C D
When the hero takes a fall

D
Your mother told you stories
D
You substitute what girls tell you more
D
Suddenly your sycophants are chanting slogans at your door

G F
They're seeing through you now
G F
I saw it all before

C
And I won't feel bad at all
C
When the hero takes a fall
C D
When the hero takes a fall

(solo over verse / bridge chords)

D
Emotion is a virtue
D
For you it is the one fatal flaw
D
Sitting on your throne and drinking
D
Thinking she'll return your call

G F
Every story's got an ending
G F
Look out, here it comes here it comes

C
And I won't feel bad at all
C
When the hero takes a fall
C D
When the hero takes a fall

("oh oh, oh oh, oh whoa oh" to G F and D chords)
