This day is getting older and the fading light is beautiful This wind is blowing colder and too soon i'll feel its pull still i took all my chances burned myself an even scar trying to learn my lessons well and i don't have the answers for those questions anymore, only love can be both heaven and hell so steady up steady up your heart for the road is long ahead i'll be with you even though we are apart but this road is yours to tread

and so it goes, and so it goes and so it goes, slows your mind SOL0

i've grown old on this ocean, gave her all my stronger years gave my wife my devotion when she died the ocen my tears i've tried to teach you well son, all of everything i knew of how to live this life be true don't bow your head to no one and no matter what you do if you start then see it through
