

The Bird and The Bee - All Our Endless Love

Tom: Eb

Intro: Cm Eb Fm G

Verse 1:

At first i was scared
The way these feelings started coming on
I couldnt breathe without you there
I couldnt see without you in my arms
I opened up my eyes to find your eyes already open
I see a piece of me inside
As if its been there all the time

chorus:

I am just blood, i am just blood
I am just a heart thats beating up every second of your touch
I am just stars, i am just sky
I am falling to the rhythm of all your endless love

Verse 2:

It keeps me up at night
Was there a time i lived without you?
Just living off your air
Every breath is all about you
Im spinning all the worlds around to try and rearrange them
I work so hard to say goodnight
But there's too much of you left behind

Chorus 2:

I am just blood, i am just blood
(you are just running through my veins)
I am just a heart (keeping you alive) thats beating up
(pulsing everywhere)
Every (inside of me) second of your touch
I am just stars, i am just sky (you are everything i see)
I am falling (drifted) to the rhythm (im not afraid, just let me fall) of
All your endless love

bridge:

is this really ending?
is this really ending?
all our endless love

Chorus 2:

I am just blood, i am just blood
(you are just running through my veins)
I am just a heart (keeping you alive) thats beating up
(pulsing everywhere)
Every (inside of me) second of your touch
I am just stars, i am just sky (you are everything i see)
I am falling (drifted) to the rhythm (im not afraid, just let me fall) of
All your endless love

Ending: Fm Cm Fm G (same chords as bridge)
