

The Black Keys - All My Life

```
Turn the page
                                                                          tom:
                                                                         Dm
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   Fm7
Intro: Dm7 G Dm7 G
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     You don't ever want to dwell on darker days
                                 Dm7 G Dm7
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     You gotta make the change
[Primeira Parte]
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         Dm7
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    New heartbreak
   G
                                  Dm7
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   Em7
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    Could be waiting 'round that corner everyday
All my life
I've been stumblin' out of the blue
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    But that's the chance we take
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               Dm7
                                                                                                      Dm7
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    All my life
And straight into the black
    G Dm7
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              Em7
All my life
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    You could say sometimes I mighta' been outta my mind
                      G
If I said goodbye
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    But I was never unkind
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  Dm7
You know that I would never look back
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    Sacrifice
And that's a matter of fact
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    I gave everything I had, I laid it all on the line % \left\{ 1\right\} =\left\{ 1\right\}
    Dm7
Foolish ways
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    Time after time
Always the same
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     [Refrão]
There ain't no shame in the game that you choose
                                    Dm7
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    Ooh, everybody's wondering what's wrong with me
All my days
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     Can't get along with me
We let everybody know that we had nothing to lose
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                Dm7
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        Dm7
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    Ooh, they been sayin' that I'm just playing with a losing hand
We had something to prove
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    Been doin' the best I can [Refrão]
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    Dm7 G
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    All my life
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    Dm7
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    All my life
Ooh, everybody's wondering what's wrong with me
Can't get along with me
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    [Final]
Ooh, they been sayin' that I'm just playing with a losing hand \ensuremath{\text{Dm7}}
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    All my life
Been doin' the best I can
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    All my life
Dm7 G
All my life
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    Dm7 G
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    All my life
Dm7
All my life
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    Dm7
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      G
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    All my life
[Segunda Parte]
```

Acordes

