

The Black Keys - All My Life

```
Turn the page
                                                                             tom:
Intro: Dm G Dm G
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    You don't ever want to dwell on darker days
                                 Dm G Dm
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    You gotta make the change
[Primeira Parte]
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         Dm
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   New heartbreak
                                   Dm
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   Em
All my life
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   Could be waiting 'round that corner everyday
I've been stumblin' out of the blue
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   But that's the chance we take
And straight into the black
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   All my life
All my life
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    You could say sometimes I mighta' been outta my mind
                      G
If I said goodbye
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   But I was never unkind
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   Dm
You know that I would never look back
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   Sacrifice
And that's a matter of fact
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   I gave everything I had, I laid it all on the line % \left\{ 1\right\} =\left\{ 1\right\}
Foolish ways
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   Time after time
Always the same
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    [Refrão]
There ain't no shame in the game that you choose
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   Ooh, everybody's wondering what's wrong with me
All my days
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   Can't get along with me
We let everybody know that we had nothing to lose
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    Ooh, they been sayin' that I'm just playing with a losing hand
We had something to prove
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   Been doin' the best I can [Refrão]
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   Dm G
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   All my life
Ooh, everybody's wondering what's wrong with me
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   All my life
Can't get along with me
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    [Final]
Ooh, they been sayin' that I'm just playing with a losing hand {\rm Dm}
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   All my life
Been doin' the best I can
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   All my life
Dm G
All my life
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      G
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  Dm
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   All my life
All my life
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   Dm G
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   All my life
[Segunda Parte]
```

Acordes

