

The Cardigans - Sick & Tired

Tom: G

I saw, there is a real cardigan's classic missing.
Hope, chords are all right and you'll enjoy (it's a bit tricky, but you'll see)!

Tabbed by: De Selby
Email:

Tuning: standard
Intro: Em Em Gb B

Verse:
Em Em Gb B

Bridge:
Em D

Chorus:
Am D G Em D7 C B

Intro: (Em, Em, F#, B)

Verse Em Em Em sick, tired and homeless
Gb B with no one here to sing for
Em Em Em tired of being weightless
Gb B for all these looking good boys

Bridge (Em, D, Em, D, Em)

Chorus Am D G Em you can always say my attic has its charm

Am D G Em you can always say you did no major harm
Am D D7 Em D you can always say that summer had its charm
G C Am and that you did no major harm
D G B oh, spare me if you please

Verse sick, tired and sleepless with no one else to shine for sick of all my distress
but i won't show i'm still poor

Solo:
Am D G Em

Am D G Em

Chorus2 Am D symptoms are so deep
G Em something here's so wrong
Am D nothing is complete
G Em nowhere to belong
Am D symptoms are so deep
G Em Am i think i'd better stay here on my own
D G B so spare me if you please

Acordes

