                                                               I always told that only time would heal your pain
                                                               Even though it's been so long, it still hurts just the same
                   Gbm
                                                                       D Gbm
Thought that I'd be better off if I were on \ensuremath{\mathsf{my}} own
                                                               Then and now I'm finding that the bright was blinding
                  Gbm
                                                                                 Gbm
I tried to put my finger on the moment we were on
                                                               I take back everything I said, won't you just come home
      D
                  Gbm
But the taste turned bitter, so I pulled the trigger
                                                               Ice cold, I freeze_up when I see you
                   Gbm
And as so easy to move on, I guess I should have known
                                                               Left you just to find out that I need you
Ice cold, I freeze up when I see you
                                                               So far, I wanna pull you closer,
Left you just to find out that I need you Gbm D
                                                               Wish we could start the whole thing over
So far, I wanna pull you closer,
                                                               Ever since left you, Ive been trying to get you
Wish we could start the whole thing over
                                                               Back and it keeps getting worse
Ever since left you, Ive been trying to get you
                                                               I'm burning on the inside,
Back and it keeps getting worse
                                                               And the truth is that I didn't know how good you were
                                                                                         Gbm
I'm burning on the inside,
                                                               Until you were gone (gone gone gone gone (2X))
And the truth is that I \operatorname{didn't} know how good you were Until you were gone!
