

The Clash - Hitsville U.K.

Tom: C

Intro:

Verse (and solo):

Bridge:

F G C F

Chorus:

C

Verse 1:

C
They cried the tears, they shed their fears,

C G
up and down the land.

C
They stole guitars, and used guitars,

C G
so the tape would understand.

Bridge:

F G
without even, the slightest hope,

C F
of a thousand sales

F G
Just as if, as if they were,

C F
hitsville in U.K.

Chorus:

F C
I know the boy was all alone,

C
'till the hitsville hit U.K.

Verse 2:

They say true talent,
will always emerge in time,
when lightning hits, small wonder,
its sparks for factory time

Bridge:

No expense accounts, no lunch discounts,
or hypeing up the charts

the band went in, and knocked 'em dead, in two minutes fifty-nine

Chorus

Solo (verse w/out lyrics)

Bridge:

No slimy deals, no smarmy eels,
in hitsville U.K.

we'll shake them and say, we'll operate,
in hitsville U.K.

Chorus:

I know the boy felt all alone,
'till the hitsville hit U.K.

Verse 3:

The mutants, creeps and muscled men,
are shaking like the leaves,

it blows a hole in the radio
when it hasn't sounded good all week

Bridge:

A mighty boom, in your living room,
in hitsville U.K.

no consumer trials, no A.O.R's
in hitsville U.K.

Chorus

I know the boy felt all alone,
'till the hitsville hit U.K.

now the boys and girls are not alone,
now that hitsville hit U.K.
