

The Cranberries - Yeat's Grave

tom:

G

Am G Em Am
Silenced by death in the grave, ah ah ah ah
Am G Em Am
W B Yeats couldn't save, ah ah ah ah
Am G
Why did you stand here
G Em
Were you sickened in time
Em Am
But I know by now
Am G Em
Why did you sit here, ah ah ah

[Refrão]

Em Am G
In the grave
G Em
In the grave, grave, grave
Am G
In the grave
Em
In the grave, grave, grave

Am
Why should I blame her
G
That she filled my days
Em
With misery or that she would of late
Am G
Have taught to ignorant men most violent ways

Em Am
Or hurled the little streets upon the great
G
Had they but courage
Em
Equal to desire

Am G Em Am
Sad that Maud Gonne couldn't stay, ah ah ah ah
Am G Em Am
But she had MacBride anyway, ah ah ah ah
Am
And you sit here with me
G
On the Isle Innisfree
Em
And your writing down anything
Am
But I know by now
G Em
Why did you sit here, ah ah ah

[Refrão]

Em Am G
In the grave
G Em
In the grave, grave, grave
Am G
In the grave
Em
In the grave, grave, grave

Am G
Why should I blame her
Em Am
Had they but courage equal to desire
