

The Crane Wives - The Crooked, The Cradle

tom:
Am

Intro: Am C G F

Am
There's blood in the water
C

There's blood in the water
G F

The quiet are restless, the silent are still

Am
I'm nobody's daughter
C

I'm nobody's daughter
G F

My enemies crawl, we're alone with the kill

F
If mercy's abound
C

I'll be safe, I'll be sound
Am G

And the devil won't know all the love I just couldn't let go
F

I won't pretend
C

My season won't end
Am

But I pray
G

When it's done, when it's through, I'll have something left for you

(F C Am G)

Am
The noble are weary
C

The noble are weary
G F

This cradle still burns like a hole in my chest

Am
Can anyone hear me?
C

Can anyone hear me?
G F

The crooked are smiling, they know me the best
F

If mercy's abound
C

I'll be safe, I'll be sound
Am G

And the devil won't know all the love I just couldn't let go
F

I won't pretend
C

My season won't end
Am

But I pray
G

When it's done, when it's through, I'll have something left
for you

(F C Am G)

If mercy's abound
G

I'll be safe, I'll be sound
G

And the devil won't know all the love I just couldn't let go
F

I won't pretend
C

My season won't end
Am

But I pray
G

When it's done, when it's through, I'll have something left
for you

(Am)

Acordes

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com