

The Doors - My Wild Love

Tom: D

my wild love went ridin'

she rode all the day

she wrote to the devil

and asked him to pay

the devil was wiser

it's time to repent

he asked her to give back

the money she spent

my wild love went ridin'

she rode to the sea

she gathered together

some shells for her head

she rode and she rode on

she rode for a while

then stopped for an evenin'

and lay her head down

she rode on to Christmas

she rode to the farm

she rode to japan

and we entered a town

by this time the river

had changed one degree

she asked the people

to let her go free

my wild love is crazy

she screams like a bird

she moans like a cat

when she wants to be heard

my wild love went ridin'

she rode for an hour

she rode and she rested

and then she rode on

ride, c'mon
