

Eagles - One More Song

Tom: Bb I was singing in a bar in San Diego And the clock on the wall said time to go Bb And the old man in the chair by the fire Bb Said would you boys mind playing one more One more song for the night gone by One more song for the Long ride home One more song before I walk out the door Bb F Bb F One more song before I'm alone Me and my buddies we were knows as the Silverados I was leaving town for good that night Fb So we sang him one more in the old Sombrero bar Bb Beneath the old broken neon light Bb One more song for the night gone by One more song for the good times and the bad $% \left(1\right) =\left(1\right) \left(1\right)$ For the faces of strangers and the Voices of friends One more song for the times we had S0L0

Acordes

So we sang him a sad and a sweet one
     Bh
And we sang it so soft
And so high
      Bb
And his tired eyes
They smiled goodbye
      Bb
When the waitress said
F Fh
Closin' time
I thought, it's funny the places
Life will lead you
       Bb
As I was packin' away my bass guitar
   Bb
I was singin' this song as the road
                  Bb
Raced along, and the empty night
Swallowed my car
      Bb
One more song for the night gone by
One more song for the things we've done
      Bb
One more song for this road
  Fb
I'm traveling on
One more song for the time to come
              Bb
For the times to come
```
