The Fratellis - Milk And Money

Tom: C C F7 G G7 It's a very confusing way to feel (intro) C Am C Am The radio is silent C Am Tell me where you been to C Am C Am Except for wicked bands Point me to the door Dm G Sounded like the last one Dm G I've seen you around Dm G Always in demand Dm G But I really can't be sure C Am And now the city is off limits C Am C Am And all the action men are busy To everyone in blue C Am Dm G Climbing up the wall Nothings getting in there Dm G Dm G No-one's getting through Banging on the window Dm G Tearing down the hall C And it's no surprise С C7 And the last chance girl When the last light dies C7 In her first dance swirl And the girl upon the wooden floor F Fm Lays her head down on the wooden floor Won't be dancing any more Fm Won't be dancing any more C F7 And where do they go when the thrills have gone C F7 C F7 And where do they go when the thrills have gone The last song plays down in Babylon C F7 C F7 The last song plays down in Babylon Five hundred kids shout "what's the deal?" C F7 C F7 G G7 Five hundred kids shout "what's the deal?" It's a very confusing way to feel

Acordes

G

ukulele-chords.com