The Fray - Be The One

```
Tom: B
                                                         E B Gb
                                                  Will you be the only one
Intro: dução :
                                                                        B Gb
                                                       Abm E
                                                  Will you be, be the one and only
Abm E B
                                                  Wait for me, will you be the only one
Abm B Abm B
Abm B Abm B
                                                  Abm B Abm
Verses:
                                                  Abm E B
      E
                                                  What if I knew how to yell
                   В
They're two lovers in the night
                                                    Gb Abm
                                                  What would I pray
    Gb Abm
Waiting on the sun to rise
                                                        E
                                                                     R
                                                  What if I knew how to tell
     E
                  В
Passing ships into the night

Gb Abm

Under different skies
                                                    Gb Abm
                                                  What would I say
                                                        F
     E
                         R
                                                                  B
                                                  I will be the only one
But you just whisper what you said
                                                     Gb
Gb Abm
                                                                      Abm
                                                  If you say you'll never go
One last time
 E
                                                       E
                        B
I could have sworn I heard you say
                                                  I'll be screaming out your name
Gb Abm B Abm
                                                        Gb Abm
That you are mine
                                                  From the back of row
Abm E
                                                         E B Gb
                 B Abm
Faded flowers in your hand
Gb Abm
                                                  Be the one and only, wait for me
E B Gb
The best that I could do
                                                  Will you be the only one
E B
It's the only way I've had
                                                        Abm E
                                                  Will you be, be the one and only
Gb Abm
                                                         Abm E B
Of reaching you
                                                  Wait for me, let me be your only one ea.
E
                                                  Abm E B Gb x4
                   R
I never saw it like you did
                                                          E B Gb
                                                                       Abm
   Gb Abm
Didn't know that it was there
                                                  Be the one and only, wait for me
  E B
                                                      E B Gb
You don't see it in your hand
                                                  Will you be the only one
                                                  Abm E B
Will you be, be the one and only
Gb Abm It's in the air
                                                         Abm E B
    E B Gb
                    Abm
                                                  Wait for me, let me be your only one
```

Gb

ukulele-chords.coπ

Gb

B Gb

B Gb

Gb

Gb

Be the one and only, wait for me

ukulele-chords.com

Abn

ukulele-chords.com

Ε

ukulele-chords.com

Acordes в