

The Fray - Look After You

This most assuredly counts Em D C
                   tom:
                                                                             She says most assuredly

                                                                             Oh, ooh, oh
C G Em D
If I don't say this now, I will surely break
C G Em D
                                                                             Oh, ooh, oh
As I'm leaving the one I want to take

C G Em D

Forgive the urgency, but hurry up and wait

                                                                             Be my baby
                                                                             I'll look after you
My heart has started to separate
                                                                             After you
                                                                             Oh, ooh, oh
Oh, ooh, oh
                                                                             Oh, ooh, oh
Oh, ooh, oh
                                                                             Be my baby
Be my baby

                          Em
There now, steady love, so few come and don't go
                                                                             Oh, ooh, oh
Will you, won't you, be the one I'll always know?
