C
Mary, this station is playing every sad song

Am
I remember like we were alive

C
I heard and sung them all from inside of these walls

Am
In a prison cell, where we spent those nights

C
And they burned up the diner where I always used to find her

Am
Licking young boys blood from her claws

C
And I learned about the blues from this kitten I knew

Am
Her hair was raven and her heart was like a tomb

F G
My heart's like, like a wound

Am F C G
But I saw tail lights last night in a dream about my first wife

Am F C G
Everybody leaves and I'd expect this much from you

Am F C G
I saw tail lights last night in a dream about my old life

Am F C G
Everybody leaves, so why, why wouldn't you?

C
Mary, I worried and stalled every night of my life

Am
Better safe than making then making the party

C
And I never had a good time, I sat by my bedside

Am
With papers and poetry about Estella

F G
Great expectations
