

The Heavy Horses - Whispered To My Self

 Capostraste na 1ª casa

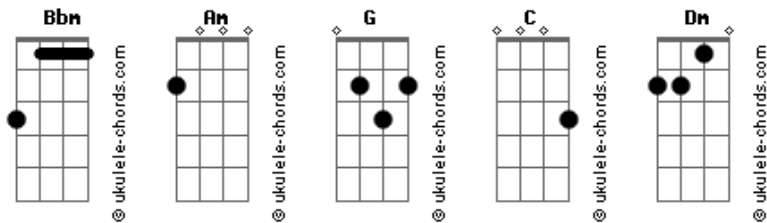

[Primeira Parte]

In the dirty streets of Laredo
 I saw you standing there
 With the moonlight shining on your?cold?black hair
 With the?darkness all around me
 I had trouble?finding words
 So I whispered to myself and prayed you'd heard
 Well?you?must?have been an?angel
 Who'd fallen from?the skies
 'Cause you turned to me
 And I saw heaven in your eyes
 (G Am G Am)

[Segunda Parte]

You were promised to another
 Who'd wed your heart one day
 So you woke one night
 And softly slit that fate away
 When I found you in the crisp dawn of morning

Acordes

With blood stains on your clothes
 With your hands as tools
 It was me your heart had chose
 And we went to seek your forgiveness
 Where the red sand turns to clay
 And we asked the lord
 To wash your sins away
 (G Am G Am)
 [Terceira Parte]
 Then I lost your love forever
 Where the river meets the land
 When the swiftness swept your life out of my hands
 And I swear that I could hear laughter
 As the heavens shook and cracked
 And I cursed the god who, in envy
 Took you back
 And my heart, it raged like the river
 And my tears fell like the rain
 And I found myself, alone in darkness
 Once again
