I know that look on your face
You coming my way, you coming my way tonight

I wish I let it go, you're better off alone 'Cause I'm about to fuck it up with you
I know that look on your face
You comin' my way, you comin' my way tonight

And i will never change
                     Em
                              Am7
I couldn't even if i wanted to for you
              D
There's nothing left to say
If i was you, if i was you D Em7 D
Then i would stay a thousand miles away
( Em7 D C G )
It's hard to give it all up
Tryna block you out but you're invading my thoughts
And you got ten fingers wrapped around my heart, uh
Wish I could give you everything that you want, but I won't,
( Em7 D C G )
