

The Killers - Christmas In L.a. (feat. Dawes)

```
Tom: Ab
Intro: Ab Db Ab Eb
Woke up, the sun streaming in my room
                         Fh
Warm beach from Palm, December afternoon
                      Db
You close your eyes, another year blows by
                        Eb Ab Db
Somewhere in the wind, just another life
My parents sent a Christmas card and then it's true
                                Eb
We understand you're staying, and we're proud of you
There's a well-rehearsed disinterest in the atmosphere
Eb Ab
I don't know if that's what this time gave me
     Eb
                 Ab
Or if it lead me here
     Db Eb
And I played so many parts
      Db
I don't know which one's really me
     Bbm Eb Fm
Don't know if I can take
           Ab
Another Christmas in L.A.
     Fm Db
Another pitcher of Sangria
 Ab Eb
In an empty beach café
     Ab Eb
Another Christmas in L.A.
    Fm Db
Hold me tighter, Carmelita
        Ab
I don't know how long I can stay
(Ab Db)
                  Dbm Db
Left a girl behind in my old man's truck
```

Sometimes I wonder where she ended up
Maybe she got married, had a couple of kids
Who do you think you're fooling, man?
Of course she did
               Eb
          Db
I'm walking in that tennis bar
      Db Eb Fm
Try and talk with Harry Bean
       Db Eb Fm Eb
I don't know if I can take
Another Christmas in L.A.
      Fm
Another casting call on Thursday
For a job that doesn't pay
        Ab Eb
Another Christmas in L.A.
       Fm Db
Another burnout in a tank top
      Ab Eb
It seems your basket is the case
       Fm
A fat protagonist in flip flops
        Ab
With an extensive resume
Db Eb Fm
From Echo Park to Catalina
Dreaming of a white Christmas
 Db Ab Eb
The one I used to know
               Eb
Tree tops glisten, children listen
 Db Ab Eb
To sleigh bells in the snow
( Ab Eb Fm Db Ab )
Another Christmas in \mathsf{L}.\mathsf{A}
(Fm Db Ab Eb Ab)
