

The Killers - Why Don't You Find Out For Yourself

Tom: G

INTRO: E - C - A
E - C - A - C

G D
The sanest days are mad.

Why don't you find out for yourself? Am

Then you'll see the price, very closely. C

BREAK

E - C - A
E - C - A - C

Bm E C
Some men here,

they have a special interest in your career. G Bm E

They wanna help you to grow, C D and then syphon all your dough. G D

Why don't you find out for yourself? Am

Then you see the glass, hidden in the grass. C G

You'll never believe me, so D

why don't you find out for yourself? Am

Sick down to my heart, C
well that's just the way it goes.

BREAK

E - C - A
E - C - A - C

Bm E C
Some men here,

they know the full extent of your distress. G Bm E

They kneel and pray and they say: C D G

Long may it last. D

Why don't you find out for yourself? Am

Then you'll see the glass, hidden in the grass. C G

Bad scenes come and go, D

for which you must allow. Am

Sick down to my heart, C
well that's just the way it goes.

BREAK

E - C - A
E - C - A - C

E - A - C - D G D
Don't rake up my mistakes.

I know exactly what they are. Am

And what do you do? C

Well, you just sit there. G

I've been stabbed in the back

so many, many times. Am C

I don't have any skin, C
but that's just the way it goes.
