The Kinks - Shangri-La

                              tom:
                  Am

               Am                G          E7    Am
Now that you've found your paradise
    Am           C        G      E7
This is your kingdom to command
           Am    C           G           E7
You can go outside and polish your car
     Am           C              E7      Am   (opening riff)
Or sit by the fire in your Shangri-La

 Am              G           E7        Am
Here is your reward for working so hard
   Am            C           G        E7
Gone are the lavatories in the backyard
   Am            C              G             E7
Gone are the days when you dreamed of that car
       Am          C             E7      Am    A
You just want to sit in your Shangri-La

 D                          D
Put on your slippers and sit by the fire
          D7                          G          G       Em
You've reached your top and you just can't get any higher
                  C             C              Am   Am
You're in your place and you know where you are
           F      F  Dm  Dm
In your Shangri-La
Sit back in your old rockin' chair
     D7                   G           G  Em
You need not worry you need not care
                  C   C  Am
You can't go anywhere
          F  A          F  A          Bb  F      C    A
Shangri-La, Shangri-La, Shangri-La-ah-ah-ahh

The little man who gets the train
          D7                 G           G  Em
Got a mortgage hanging over his head
                  C               C  Am  Am
But he's too scared to complain
                F             F  Dm  Dm
Cos he's conditioned that way
Time goes by and he pays off his debts
        D7               G   G  Em

Got a T.V. set and a radio
                C              C  Am
For seven shillings a week
          F  A          F  A          Bb  F      C
Shangri-La, Shangri-La, Shangri-La-ah-ah-ahh
          F  A          F  A          Bb  F      C
Shangri-La, Shangri-La, Shangri-La-ah-ah-ahh

( Bb  F  C   Bb  F  C  Bb  F  Dm )

 Dm             Dm         Dm               Dm
And all the houses in the street have got a name
 Dm             Dm         Dm               Dm
Cos all the houses in the street they look the same
  A                                D                  Dm
Same chimney pots, same little cars, same window panes
 Dm             Dm              Dm                  Dm
The neighbors call to tell you things that you should know
 Dm              Dm                  Dm               Dm
They say their lines they drink their tea and then they go
 A                          D              Dm
They tell your business in another Shangri-La
 Dm                     Dm             Dm             Dm
The gas bills and the water rates and payments on the car
 Dm             Dm             Dm          Dm
Too scared to think about how insecure you are
 A                              D
Life ain't so happy in your little Shangri-La
          G         C         F  Bb  G  C  F  Bb  G  C  F  Bb  G
C  F  Bb... G  C  F  A
Shangri-La la la la la la la...

Put on your slippers and sit by the fire
          D7                          G          G       Em
You've reached your top and you just can't get any higher
                  C             C              Am
You're in your place and you know where you are
           F      F  Dm  Dm
In your Shangri-La
Sit back in your old rockin' chair
      D7                   G           G  Em
You need not worry you need not care
                  C      C  Am
You can't go anywhere
          F  A          F  A          Bb  F     C     A
Shangri-La, Shangri-La, Shangri-La-ah-ah-ahh
          F  A          F  A          Bb  F      C
