

The Kooks - Taking Pictures Of You

Tom: D

I have a secret i want to tell you
It's time that i close my eyes, i can feel you
I ran away with my imagination
And i am blind but oh i can see love through
Oooh

I have a secret i need to tell you
Exquisite visions fell off my mind

Do you remember me, taking pictures of you
As the light came through
You were running away
And i asked you for a place to stay

A D

Do you remember me, taking pictures of you? taking pictures of you...

Oh i have a secret i need to tell you
I've been to and i needed no clue
We live in such extraordinary time
Exquisite visions fell off my mind

Do you remember me, taking pictures of you
As the light came through
You were running away
And you asked me for a place to stay

Do you remember me, taking pictures of you? such a wonderful thing... to do...
