

The Lumineers - Angela

Tom: C

Intro: G Dm C (2x)

When you left this town, with your windows down

And the wilderness inside

Let the exits pass, all the tar and glass

'Til the road and sky align

The strangers in this town

They raise you up just to cut you down

Oh angela it's a long time coming

And your volvo lights lit up green and white

With the cities on the signs

But you held your course to some distant war

In the corners of your mind

From the second time around

The only love I ever found

Oh angela it's a long time coming

Home at last

Were you safe and warm in your coat of arms

With your fingers in a fist

Did you hear the notes, all those static codes

In the radio abyss?

Strangers in this town

They raise you up just to cut you down

Oh angela it's a long time coming

Oh angela spent your whole life running

Home at last

Vacancy, hotel room, lost in me, lost in you

Angela, on my knees, I belong, I believe
