The Lumineers - Morning Song

Tom: C Intro: C G F C G The carbonation in my drink G The bubbles rise while my heart sinks CG F And all I tend to do is think of you Was it easier to pack your bags G And book that flight to paris as CG The plane began to move that afternoon Interlúdio: C G F C G When all the trains have pulled away G From local stations in decay CG It's I who waits, it's you who's late again ſ And did you think of me when you made love To him, was it the same as us CG Or was it different, it must have been Interlúdio: C G F C G G And all the pretty dames F Am G They'll hug and kiss you all the same F С

And when they go, they're gone Am G C F They're not run-ning late C G C

Acordes

Oh all, all the pretty dames C G ſ And the kids you hold in your arms F Am G With promises to protect them from harm F C But they grow, and they go Am GCF And you're all a-lone С G All the kids, all the kids that you hold С G С And it's a shame that it ends this way F Am G With nothing left to say Am G C F F C So just sit on your hands, while I walk aw-ay G It's a shame, it's a shame, it's a shame С G C When my hands begin to shake F Am When bitterness is all I taste F C And my car won't stop Am G C F Cause I cut the brakes С G I hold on to a hope in my fate C G C Oh oh ah ah hey hey F Am May you return to love one day F C Well I hope and I pray Am G C F You get what you gave

C G C Oh oh ah ah hey hey