

The Lumineers - You're All I Got

tom:

Intro: Am C F C F

[Primeira Parte]

Count the blows you took it like a champ
All the years we walked it hand in hand
Siamese it's hard to breathe in Twenty years and no one gives a damn

Let the light come down on me
Let the light come down on me

[Segunda Parte]

Feeling bored and running from the shame
Living for the love of yesterday
Lawyer fees, stretch limousines
Pull the cord and flush it down the drain

Let the light come down on me
Let the light come down on me

Let the light come down on me

You're all I got, you're all that I got

Business trips your daddy's gone away
Will he ever make it back to base
Frozen handshake, rip the band-aid
Blame yourself for what you didn't say

Let the light come down on me
Let the light come down on me

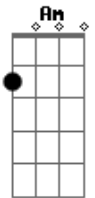

You're all I got, you're all that I got
And I can't give it up

Fillin all the holes in us
You're all that I got

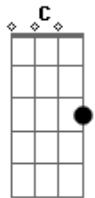

You're all I got, you're all that I got

And I can't give it up like Sisyphus below the rock
You're all that I got
