

The Midnight - Brooklyn

tom:

Intro: Ab Ab

Ab
There's traffic on the bridge
Eb
But the skyline shines with a certain light
Db
And I know you're sick of it
Fm Eb
But I know a happy hour nearby

Ab
And there's a possibility
Eb
That one day, things'll get better
Db
For the huddled masses in between
Fm Eb
The shadows and the stars

Ab
Floating empire
Eb
Held up by fraying wire
Db
I'll cover you in winter
Fm Eb
Like a blanket by the fire
Ab
And when the rent's too high
Eb
We'll just buy cheaper wine
Db
And hang on to see if whether
Ab Fm Eb Ab Eb
Constellations hold together or not

Ab
Four years in Brooklyn
Eb
And happy birthday, darling
Db Fm
When we feel young again
Eb
I'd like to take you dancing

Ab
'Cause there's a possibility
Eb
That one day, things'll get better
Db
Fm Eb
The shadows and the stars

Ab

And there's a possibility
Eb
That we'll both go down together
Db
Or free ourselves from gravity
Fm Eb
And tumble through the dark

Ab
Floating empire
Eb
Held up by fraying wire
Db
I'll cover you in winter
Fm Eb
Ab
And when the rent's too high
Eb
We'll just buy cheaper wine
Db
And hang on to see if whether
Constellations hold together or not

Ab Eb
I never placed too much faith in the stars
Fm Eb Db
I never placed too much faith in my heart
Ab Fm Eb
But the siren call of the chandelier city
Ab Eb
And inch-by-inch, we're breaking apart
Fm Eb Db
As we're rising through the dark
From the sky, I bet the lights look pretty
