

The Moldy Peaches - Downloading Porn With Davo

Tried to buy your love but I came up short
So I fcked a little waitress in exchange for a snort

verse:
                                                                  That I'm downloading porn with Davo
Sleeping in a van between A and B
Sucking dick for ecstacy
                                                                  Oh baby I know you love the good old days
Paid a 70 year old hooker to make out with me
                                                                  Cruising on the Long Island expressway
Now the get-high shack is just a memory
                                                                  I used to be dead but now I'm gay
                                                                  All I ever think about is drowning, drowning chorus:
                                                                  Downloading porn with Davo
