

The Naked And Famous - Serenade

Tom: D

Oh darling I don't think this serenade is gonna carry through, is gonna carry through You're screaming and you're fighting with your brain and the battling war drives you back and forth, driving you insane

Refrão:

You're crying, you're crying, you're crying

Oh but the salt tastes so divine

This love, this love, this love

is what I want, is what I want.

It's been a while since she had spoke to you and she passed some words, but then you passed a fire memories flooding back into that part that you want to forget and you wanna kill, ohh and you wanna kill

Refrão:

You're crying, you're crying, you're crying

oh but the salt tastes so divine
This love, this love, this love,
is what I want, is what I want.

Ponte:

You drank far too much wine

A dizzy spell to block out all the sunshine but it didn't do you justice for the crime of love

no it didn't do you justice, it didn't do you justice all for her

(D Bm D Bm)

(D Bm D Bm)

Oh love listen to me, you got it hard but soon it will be easy

The crime of love was tried but you did not succeed no it didn't do you justice, it didn't do you any good it didn't do you justice, no it didn't do you justice all for her
