Am F C F C A
 So happy I was invited, give me a reason to get out of the city
 F C
 See you inside watching swarms on TV
 A
 Livin' or dyin' in New York it means nothing to me
 Am F
 C
 Gave my heart to the Army, the only sentimental thing I could think of
 F C
 With cousins and colors and somewhere overseas
 A
 But it'll take a better war to kill a college man like me
 Am C F C
 I'm too tired to drive anyway, anyway right now do you care if I stay?
 F C
 You can put on your bathing suits
 A
 And I'll try to find somethin' on this thing that means nothin' enough

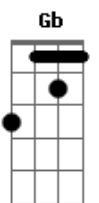

Am F C
 Losin' my breath, doo doo doo doo doo doo
 F C Bb4
 Losin' my breath, doo doo doo doo doo doo doo

Am C
 You and your sister live in a lemonworld
 F C
 I want to sit in and die
 F C
 You and your sister live in a lemonworld
 A
 Doo doo doo doo doo doo doo doo
 Am C
 You and your sister live in a lemonworld
 F C
 I want to sit in and die
