

The Neighbourhood - Over The Influence

Gb D tom: Sp?nt my whole life with somebody Everything started with instinct Wasted a whole lot of money My heart and my body felt in synch Anything not to be lonely Figured out what I've been missing right then and here, yeah Oh-oh, ooh-woah, oh Tried to grow up in a hurry Mama's an entertainer, daddy's stranger in the orbit Caught in the sound and the fury Got a lot of baggage, always feelin' like a tourist That's when it starts to get blurry, yeah-yeah Surfin' though cyberspace, debatin' what's important (yeah) Hmm, the doctor wrote me my prescription Had a taste, I was addicted Walked to the beat of my heart Ate the candy that was given to me, bittersweet Got me a show with the stars Now the only thing I'm wishin' for is a little more space Walked to the beat of my heart Followed the path that I saw Got me a show with the stars I'd pay whatever the cost Now I can't help wishin' for, a little more space Now the only thing I can afford is, a little more Followed the path that I saw [Final] D A C I'd pay whatever th? cost D A C Gb D Now the only thing I can afford is, a little more [Solo] D A C G
